

Y6 History/English project – To be completed by half term 12th February 2010

You are a novelist who has been given the task of writing a fictional book set in World War 2. Because you weren't around then you don't know that much about the 1930s and 40s when the war took place. So you need to do some research.

Choose a topic related to the war which will form the basis of the novel. It could be one of the following:

Dunkirk * Land Girls * The Home Front * The Home Guard * Colditz * V.E. Day * Childhood * Evacuees

It could be in the form of : A diary * A love story * Letters * An adventure story*

You need to organise your research in a way that is going to help you write your book. Here are some ideas:

- A storyboard showing pictures of characters, locations, and events with notes about ideas and facts for your story.
- A detailed mind map with several sections and sub- sections.
- A cartoon strip showing the plot of your story together with notes and facts you will need to write it.

Next half term, your project will be to write your story which must be several pages long and written in chapters.
